

LORY CUP

Description

Viscosity flow cup for the measurement of viscosity. Conventional cylindrical cup with a needle fixed into the bottom for quick measurements on-site or during production.

The cup is first dipped into the product to be measured, then emptied. The flow time elapses when the point of the needle appears.

Technical Details

Orifice 4 mm

Range 50 – 1100 cSt (indicative)